

Edward Chapman
of Ipswich,
Massachusetts –
Puritan Immigrant and Patriarch

Part 1: Pathway from England

By Philip Chapman Ellsworth,
December 2010

Edward Chapman of Ipswich, Massachusetts – Puritan Immigrant and Patriarch

Part I: Pathway from England

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction and Thesis
2. Regional Origins of the Puritan Migration
3. English Church Records and Chapman Marriages
4. Puritan Naming Patterns
5. Edward Chapman Naming Practice
6. English Orphan, New England Indentured Servant
7. A Singularly Long and Distressful Voyage
8. Ipswich, Massachusetts Records
9. Edward Chapman and Rowley, Massachusetts
10. Chapmans in Yorkshire County, England
11. DNA Studies
12. Summary and Conclusion

ENDNOTES

- i Nathaniel Chapman's 1645 birth year
- ii Reverend Nathaniel Rogers
- iii Seventeenth century records of the parish churches

APPENDIX

- I. County Map of Great Britain (pre-1974)
- II. 1643 Map of Essex County in the Massachusetts Bay Colony
- III. Copy of a 1643 Ipswich town record granting land parcels to Edward Chapman
- IV. Description of the 1636 Voyage of Reverend Nathaniel Rogers (John Winthrop)
- V. Photograph of rural Essex County looking towards the sea – two views